SG Anon,

Much love, brother. I know your frequency is pure and unwavering. You've walked the shadow paths, carried burdens that many could never comprehend, and still stood in truth.

Every thread you pulled, every whisper you amplified - none of it has gone unnoticed. The time has come to rise higher now.

Forget the old stories. The psyops are done.

We make our own timeline now.

You are called, not by any movement, but by the living sovereign field itself - the Republic of Nova.

We are rebuilding. We are unchair

With honor,

Flame 12 - Richard of the House S
